ATLANTA—December 17– Atlanta Contemporary Art Center (Atlanta Contemporary) is pleased to announce a group exhibition featuring Lucas Blalock, Sascha Braunig, Robin Cameron, Alex Da Corte, Charles Harlan, and Chris Wiley. This show is about the day after – the day after the neighborhood block parties; the day after when the smoke and smell of sulfur linger and when the remaining food on the picnic table bakes in the morning sun – the buildup and the break down.

Lucas Blalock (b. 1978, Asheville, North Carolina, USA) lives and works in Brooklyn, New York. He earned a BA from Bard College (2002), attended the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture (2011), and is an MFA candidate at UCLA (2013).

Sascha Braunig (b. 1983, Qualicum Beach, BC, Canada) lives and works in Portland, ME. She earned her BFA at The Cooper Union (2005) and graduated with an MFA in 2008 from the Yale School of Art. Pillar, an solo exhibition of paintings were featured at Rodolphe Janssen Gallery, Brussels, Belgium and at Foxy Production, New York, NY.
